Class attendance is critical to your success as a student. Missing classes may impact your class success and your federal financial aid.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY:

Please be aware of the university policy on academic integrity, which is available online at: https://drexel.edu/provost/policies-calendars/policies/ listed under "Academic Integrity." Any violations of this policy will be reported to the University Office of Student Conduct. Also, be mindful of your instructor's policies and specific guidance regarding academic integrity on assignments and exams.

OFFICE OF EQUALITY & DIVERSITY and DISABILITY RESOURCES:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations and services at Drexel University need to present their current Accommodation Verification Letter (AVL) to faculty before any accommodations can be made. AVL's are issued by the Office of Disability Resources (ODR) via the Clockwork platform. AVL's should be received by the instructor at least one week prior to any assignment or exam that requires a student accommodation. For additional information, visit https://drexel.edu/disability-resources/support-accommodations/student-family-resources or contact ODR by visiting their office in Drexel's Main Building, 3141 Chestnut Street, Suite 228, Philadelphia, PA, or by phone at 215.895.1401 (Voice), or 215.895.2299 (TTY).
